

NSUC Disclaimer Regarding Jack Bell Ride-Share

The information provided by the North Shore Unitarian Church (the "Church") with respect to the Jack Bell Ride Share Program (the "Program") is provided to members, and to any others who become aware of the Program through the Church's website, to inform you of the availability of the Program only. The Church is not affiliated with the Program in any way. The Church makes no representations or warranties, whether express, implied, statutory or otherwise, including, without limitation, any implied warranty of fitness for a particular purpose, regarding the Program and hereby disclaims any such representations or warranties. The Church makes no representation, warranty, or guarantee as to the reliability, timeliness, quality, suitability, availability, or safety of the Program. The Church does not represent or warrant that the Program will meet your requirements or expectations. There are inherent risks in travelling in a car. It is up to the members, and to any others who become aware of the Program through the Church's website, who choose to use the Program, to inform themselves of the Program's workings and to follow the Program's protocols for using the Program. It is up to the members, and to any others who become aware of the Program through the Church's website, who choose to use the Program, to exercise caution in participating in the Program. Members, and any others who become aware of the Program through the Church's website, who choose to use the Program, do so entirely at their own risk and the Church disclaims any liability for injury or other damage that may be sustained by anyone using the Program. In no event shall the Church be liable to any members, or to any others who become aware of the Program through the Church's website, for any indirect, punitive, special, exemplary, incidental, consequential or other damages of any type or kind arising out of, or in any way connected with the Program.